

Tartar Hoopmen Gain First Win, Drub Santa Monica by 42-25

With Center Bill Wernette's hook shot exploding repeatedly, the Torrance Tartar cagers won their first game of the season Friday afternoon, dumping Saint Monica 42-25 at the local high school gymnasium.

Coach Cliff Greybehl's hoopmen were never behind, jumping to an early lead with the stellar floorwork of Aramis Dandoy and Wendell Vaughn who between them rang up 16 points. Dick Carrow and Wimpy Chambers also contributed four and nine points respectively to the final count.

G. I. All Star

Employing a tight man-to-man defense the Tartars held the sharp-eyed Saints to 19 points during the first half and only six markers during the final quarter. The locals led at half-time 26-19.

Big Chief Names Tribe Road Team

Hard charging center, Sgt. Robert Smith, plays for the Sixth Army Headquarters' crack football team. Bob also finds time for the post basketball, baseball and track teams while carrying on his Army career.

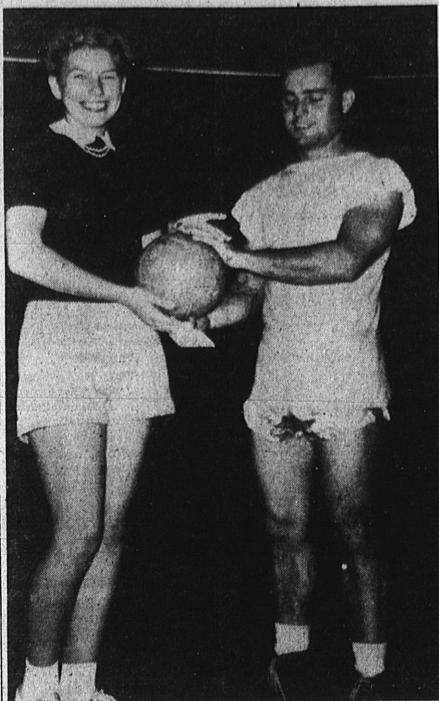

"Take it from me," Bob says, "the Army goes all out for sports these days. We get the finest equipment, plenty of practice and good competition. Lots of the fellows get their early training and physical development here in the Army; then go on to play college football later."

Bob advises any young man who wants an interesting, active life with good pay and plenty of chance for advancement to get in touch with his nearest U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force Recruiting Office. In Torrance go to U. S. Post Office.

Twelve El Camino hoopsters were selected this week by Coach John Morrow to make the barnstorming invasion of Northern California next week.

The team will leave on Wednesday, December 14, to play Grant Tech that night and then take on Sacramento J. C., San Mateo J. C., Napa J. C., San Francisco C. C., Marin J. C., and Vallejo J. C.

Those named to make the trip are: Dick Zwaing, Leonard Erickson, Paul Smith, Centers; James Cline, Hugh Corrigan, Hay Jacobs, and George Naumann, forwards; James Foxworthy, Ed Kennedy, Ken Kesson, guards. The remaining two men will be named later.

BEST BY FAR . . . Alma G. Drey and Wallace Woods last week were judged to be head and shoulders above the pack at Coach Eddie Cole's Tuesday and Thursday evening volleyball class. They scored 75 and 98, respectively, in competitive rules and technique examinations. The class, part of the Adult Education program, is still open to new students, Cole said.

El Camino Hoopsters in Threes of Losing Streak, Drop Two More

Coach John Morrow's El Camino basketball aggregation dropped its seventh and eighth consecutive games to Compton and Ventura by 77-39 and 74-39 scores respectively last week on the winner's courts. Neither was a conference game.

After leading Compton for the first eight minutes the Warriors fell apart and trailed 24-42* at halftime. The Tartars, showing great cage supremacy, hit fast and furious in the second half to sew up the contest.

Hap Jacobs counted 15 points for individual scoring honors for El Camino. Ed Tucker split the net for 16 points to pace Compton to victory.

Despite Hugh Corrigan's 23 points, El Camino fell before a potent Ventura five Saturday on the Pirate hardwood. The Pirates rolled to a 34-17 halftime lead and were never headed. It was Ventura's fifth consecutive victory.

Water Poloists Take Final Game

The El Camino water poloists defeated a stubborn Los Angeles City College crew 3 to 1 last Tuesday at the El Segundo Pool to snare second place in the Southern California Water Polo Conference. This was the last league contest of the year for the Warrior members, and a victory was necessary to clinch the second spot in the standings. A win for the Cubs would have given them this position.
